10) Redemption

The Bonds will be redeemed at par on maturity. (i.e. 1st May 2030). Investors are not allowed to sell back the bonds to The Ministry of Finance prior to maturity. The Bonds are subject to optional early redemption during the life of bonds whereby The Ministry of Finance may redeem all or part of the issued Bonds through competitive auction. However, it would be possible to sell and trade Bonds in the secondary market in accordance with the laid down procedures at Muscat Stocks Exchange.

11) Submission of Applications

Commercial Licensed Banks will bid for themselves and on behalf of their clients through GDB electronic system. Non-banks investors (i.e., institutions & individuals) making competitive bids of OMR 1 million and above can, if they wish so, submit the applications for the Bonds directly to CBO after getting them endorsed by their banks. All other applications of less than OMR 1 million must be submitted through their Commercial Licensed Banks.

12) Method of payment

CBO will debit the clearing account of the submitting bank for the total purchase price of the allotted amount (bank own bid and its clients allotted bids).

13) Announcement of Auction Results

Auction results will be announced within two days after the auction date.

14) Allotment of Bonds

On allotment of Bonds, the Bonds advice will be issued to the investor through their respective selling Banks. Investors may approach their banks for the GDBs allotment advices following the official announcement of the auction results.

15) Secondary Market

Trading of Bonds can take place at the floors of the MSX. Prices of Bonds in the secondary market will be determined by the prevailing market forces.

16) Payment of Redemption Value

On maturity, the par value of the Bonds allotted will be credited to the holders' respective accounts maintained with their nominated banks.

17) Reopening

The Bonds may be reopened by The Ministry of Finance any time after the first issuance during the life of the Bonds whereby additional amounts will be allocated through competitive auction for the remaining life of the Bonds. The reopened Bonds will have the same maturity date and coupon rate as the original Bonds.
